PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, MAY 15, 1888.

LAST EDITION.

Democrats in Convention at the Academy of Music.

Cleveland for President and Hill for Governor.

Party Leaders From All Over the State Grasp Hands.

DELEGATES ALL OF ONE MIND.

The Democratic State Convention is in session to-day at the Academy of Music. It is a love-feast, and all is harmony.

The State Committee met last night and settled all the preliminaries with such unanimity that there was nothing left to fight about.

Delegates who had met and fought in every annual gathering of the party of the Empire State for a decade shook hands and fraternized to-day with the utmost cordi-

There is a feeling of confidence and strength among the men gathered from every corner of the State. There is not a contest-not even in Onon daga or Cayuga—and the 384 delegates take their seats without friction The State Committee settled upon Frederic Regiment Band fur-nished spirited music from the first balcony F. E. COUDERT. at the right of the

The boxes were festooned with flags in prefusion and taste, and silken, gold-fringed banners ornamented every poet.

It was a notable gathering of Democrats. Besides the 34 delegates, three each from the 128 Assembly districts of the State, there were leaders of the party from everywhere. Thomas Ryan, the only Democratic Mayor of Syracuse in years, smiled from a seat in a box.

Henry W. Stowell, of Seneca Falls, one President Cleveland's first post masters in this State, was there as stanch for Cleve-land and for Hill as if he had not been forced out of his newly obtained office on a technicality.

E. Prentiss Bailey, of the Utica Observer

E. Frentiss Balley, of the Ulica O'sercer, and Posimister of the pent-up city, and Assemblyman John Kent, of Utica, looke liked very offensive partisans in the audience.
Assemblymen Charlie Church and P. A. Sullivan, of Rochester, had seats on the platform.

J. J. Kiernan, of Brooklyn, and Sheriff Keenan of Troy, also held chairs down on Keenan of Troy, also held chairs down on the stage.

Warden Charles F. Durston, of Auburn prison who is a Hill man from way back, was among the spectators.

Ex-Mayor William R. Grace, Roswell P. Flower, Congressman Perry Belmont, Daniel Dougherty, Subway Commissioner Gibbens, Col. Thomas Dunlop, ex-Mayor Edward Concern Conce Col. Thomas Dunlop, ex-Mayor Edward Cooper, Congressman W. Bourke Cockran,

W. Bourke Cockran,
Commissioner Purroy,
James J. Kelso, J. J.
O'Donohue, Richard
Coojer, Police Justice Power, Alderman
Mooney, Police Justices Welde and White, President Fester, of the Board of Aldermen; Corporation Counsel Beekman,
County Clerk Plack,
Register Slevin, Gen.
John Cochrane, Com,
miss oner of Jurora Relly, Senator Edward
F. Heilly, A derman
Patrick Divver, Senator Murphy, exWarden Walsh, Edward L. Carey, Michael Norton, Dr. Philip E. Donlin, Congressman
Amos J. Cummings, Congressman Timothy
J. Campbell, Counsellor T. C. T. Crain,
Alderman Murray Seat

Amos J. Cummings, Congressman Timothy J. Campbell, Counsellor T. C. T. Crain, Alderman Murray, Senator Langbein, J. Edward Simmons—Tammany Hall and Cou Democracy—all fraternized in harmony. Hall and County

FULL OF ENTHUSIASM. The delegates were full of enthusiasm, and every man was for Cleveland. There was as much unanimity in favor of SA F renomination for tinuing, he said :

J. EDWARD SIMMONS, in citizen's dress, graced the assembly with his presence, and Capt. Clinchy was on hand with 100 policemen in and out of uniform, stationed in all parts of the house

There were chairs on the stage for 200 per which and interest and real old-fashioned hand fire-engine used in the production of Dion Boucicault's play "The production of Dion Boucicault's play "The We see frante efforts to revive old and deed Streets of New York" last night was not completed till just before 12 o'clock, and then the stage was set with a box interior scene in blue and red. Corinthian style.

There were chairs on the stage for 200 per
When we boast of men who are great in our Charles J. Mallow the Custom-House, was the chief clerks in the Custom-House, was surrounded by a crowd of friends in the surrounded by a crowd of friends in the surrounded by a crowd of friends in the fraction of the clerks in the Custom-House, was protect them.

There is no doubt that nearly every politician of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who holds a position in the fraction of the city who had a company that the chief clerks in the Custom-House, was set with a company the city of the city who had a company the city of the city who had a company the city of the city who had a company the city of the city of sons, and every seat on the stage and in the body of the house was filled when the con-vention was called to order at a little after 12 clock.

Police Commissioner Voorbis was present, and seemed to be master of ceremonies, directing the arrange-ment of the stage and auditorium.

The State Committee

occupied the boxes at either side of the stage, and Chairman Barnum and members of the National Committee

MAURICE J. POWER. occupied the orchestra eats, and the alternates seats in the orches

Half an hour before noon the warriors began to gather. There were editors from everywhere. Besides Mr. Bailey, of the Utica Observer, and Mr. Stowell, of the Sencea Falls Repetille, there was Mr. Fleming, of Euffalo, and Mr. Northrup, of the Syracuse Courier. Hiram Calkins's well known face was seen.

was seen.

Ex-Mayor Grace shook hands with everybody in his own behalf, while Gov. Hill's friends, Assemblyman Sheeban, Charles P.
Bacon and ex-Judge William L. Muller, were busy in impressing the delegates with the idea that their chief was still awake.

Secretary of State Cook and AttorneyGeneral Tabor had a private box.

WAITING FOR THEIR CHAIRMAN.

Frederick R. Coudert, the chosen chairman of the convention, was engaged this morning in trying a case in one of the courts, an the convention was obliged to wait for

During the wait they played popular airs for the million. Erminie selections came first; then a medley of Irish airs; then patriotic airs, and finally, when the time was fast approaching 1 o'clock, Mr. Coudert came in modestly, all alone by himself, and found a seat beside the silver-tongued Dougherty, the newly painted Tammany brave

A moment later Mr. Grace had the seat on his other side, and the symbol of peace be-tween the warring factions was complete. The time before the convention was called to order was devoted to utilizing the good cheer which Gen. Ferrero had supplied. The room of the Tammany Committee on Organization and the room of the Tammany Society in the basement were used as the banquet halls, and were handsomely draped with flags, among which the American and Irish predominated. At 12.10 the body of delegates entered and, to the music of "The Red, White and Blue," "Columbia." "Star- MAYOR CHAPIN. Spangled Banner" and other patriotic air in a medley, marched down the calculation and to their seats.

The same

When the delegates had got seated there were on the platform many leaders of the party from all over the State including Lieut... Gov. Jones, ex. Mayor Edward Cooper, Judge Nehrbas, Willis S. Paine, Senators Can-Nehrbas, Willis S. Paine, Senators Cantor, Ives, Langbein and Murphy: ex-Senators Plunkitt and Culven, Henry Clausen, John H. Spellman, Assemblyman William F. Sheehan, ex-Congressman John J. Adams, Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City, and Holdridge Owen, of Norwich.

AN ANONYMOUS ATTACK.

All the delegates were talking about two pamphlets which were circulated not only about Fourteenth street, but all over the city. One was signed "A Delegate to the Democratic State Convention," and the other was not signed at all.

Both were bitter attacks on ex-Mayo Grace. In the first one, which was entitled an address to the delegates, Secretary Whitney was virulently assailed also. It ended with a covert threat against the National Administration.

ministration.

The second pamphlet was entitled ""
One-Sided History of Wm. R. Grace," and was devoted to his business career in Peru.

CHAIRMAN COUDERT'S ADDRESS. Ex-Mayor Murphy, of Troy, Chairman of the State Committee, called the convention to order. He said:

GENTLEMEN: I am instructed by the State Com-mittee to nominate for Temporary Chairman of this convention the Hon. Frederic R. Coudert, of New York.

There was great clapping of hands as Mr. Coudert made his way to the stage. Mr. Coudert addressed the convention substanfollows, being frequently interrupted by applause:

rupted by applause:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION—and if I, may be permitted to add—and Ladies: The cus om requires the man selected to preside over a body to make a speech whether he is capable or has anything to say or not. There is nothing strange in his convention. In November, 1981, we had just gins through the throes of a Presidential election. We were sure that we had woo. There was no don't but there were some men who required that we should tell them so before they would believe it. We held just such a meeting as this tanen, and we declared that we had elected our candidate.

We were called too hasty by timid people in declaring before the legal course had been run and the election declared by authority. We replied that we had had no victory for so long that we hardly knew tow to act. Victory is not new to us now. We have become accustomed to ligand we know how to lake it.

We have become accessioned to take it.

It was a bitter struggle. Once when we had gained the victory, the fruit was snatched from our very lips ere we had fairly tasted. We found that official power and the bayonet were too much for us, and it has always, in my estem, been our proudest day when we were patriotic enough to let our enemy triumph rather than throw the country into rebellion.

But now we are victors. We have been in power four years. We have kept our promises. We have done as we agreed.

done as we agreed.

Men who predicted disaster, look about you!

Never were we any more prosperous.

Mr. Coudert paid a handsome tribute to Daniel Manning, and declared him to have been a foremost citizen of the land. Con-

The city delegation was amicably divided between Tammany Hail and County Democracy, each having thirty-six of the seventy-two delegates who represent this city.

Inspector Wulliams, DWARD SIMMONS, in citizen's dress, ed the assembly with his presence, and a Clinchy was on hand with 100 policein and out of uniform, stationed in all softhe house.

In work of removing the scenery and real asshoned hand fire-engine used in the used in the succion of Dion Boucicault's play. The cornolls we appeal to records, but do not denounce those who have been of another faith. We reverence Hancock and McClellan. (Great applause.) They all belong to us, for they have served their country and have served it well. Mr. Condert concluded :

If there is anything to disturb our deliberations to-day it is our harmony. A Democratic Convention without strice is a novelty. But if Temmany and County Democracy are so locked in each other's embrace that rhey cannot be separated, we will have to saffer the evil. (Laughter and sp-

Mr. Coudert set out to cap a climax, in which Grover Cleveland's name was surely coming, but his words were unheard, the convention yelling itself out of breath. CALLING THE BOLL.

Then the roll of delegates was read by Sec-retary Delaney. The other temporary secre-taries were Charles R. De Freest and Thomas . Gilroy

F. Gilroy.

During the roll-call the names of popular leaders were the signal for applianse. The names of Sheriff Grant, Congressman Cockran and Daniel Dougherty, of the city delegation, and of Thomas Ryan, of Syracuse were received with cheers, and when the name of Edward Murphy, jr., of Troy, was called the whole convention joined in the applianse.

Troy, was called the whole convention joined in the applause.

There were only two substitutes, each delegate answering his name as given exclusively in The Evening World yesterday. A CONTEST IN QUEENS.

There was nothing to mar the harmony of the proceedings till the roll for Queens County was called. Then Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City, arose in the in the rear of the ball and said: "Mr. Chairman. I protest aga not the seating of the dele-gation as read and offer this credential as a Then the big Mayor stalked down the mid-Then the big Mayor staked down the mid-dle aisle and handed up a paper to the secre-taries, while the convention laughed good-naturedly, clapped hands and delivered ad-vice to him in stage whispers.

NAMING THE COMMITTEES On motion of T.C. S. Crain, of the Seventh District, the rules of order of the Assembly were adopted for the government of the convention.

On a resolution by Gen. Cochrane all communications are referred to the committee without debate after reading.

A Committee on Contested Seats was composed of one delegate from each Congressional district, selected by the Congressional delegates, but no member of the committee will be appropried to yote on any contest in will be permitted to vote on any contest in his own district.

Committees were selected in the same manner on resolutions, for the selection of permanent officers for the convention and to nominate national delegates-al-large and for the Congressional District. TRUSTS DENOUNCED.

Gen. Roger A. Pryor offered this resolution, asking that it be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, which was done:

Resolved, That the combinations of capital, commonly called "Trusts," are inconsistent with Democratic principle, oppressive to the people and detrimental to the public welfare, in this, especially, that they tend to monopoly, dustroy competition in trade, prevent the employment and reduce the wages of labor; arbitrarily control the production and enhance the price of the necessaries and conveniences of lite; aggrandize corporate bower; accumulate and cententrate westin in the hands of particular clusses and so create and aggravate an inequality of fortune incompatible with popular institutions.

Resolved, That by defeating all legislation for the suppression of trust combinations and monopolies, the Republican majority in the recent Legislature furnishes another add flagrant instance of the supervision of the Republican party to class interests and it. Indifference to rights of the people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party, ever vigi-people.

Resolved, That the Democratic party, ever vigilant and faithful in its solicitude for the interests of the people, pledge itself to an uncomprising warfare against this new and most formidable enemy of the public welfare.

The delegations from each Congressional district were empowered to select a State Committeeman for that district.

SUGGESTED FOR DELEGATES-AT-LARGE. The delegates did not have much time this morning to talk over slates for delegates at laage to the St. Louis National Convention.

When the delegates retired last evening the men talked of for delegates-at-large were George Raines, of Monroe: Roswell P. Flower, ex-Mayor Cooper, Smith M. Weed, Hugh McLaughlin, Mayar Chapin, Oswald Ottendorfer and several others.

Gov. Hills's friends still insist that he could not serve as a delegate-at-large, because he will be kept busy for nearly a month on bills and laws now before him. month on bills and laws now before him.

It was said early to-day that the Kings County delegates would present the name of Gov. Hill for one of the delegates at large. This rumor could not be traced to any au-

District-Attorney Ridgeway told an Even-no World reporter that the Kings County delegates had not agreed upon a candidate. "We will meet during the recandidate. "We will meet during the recess of the convention," he said, "and will probably decide to present a candidate when the time

OFFICER-HOLDERS PRESENT.

President Cleveland's Civil-Service Order Construed Both Ways.

There are any number of United States Government officials at the convention. Only a few of them, however, have the courage to come as delegates. They are present, no doubt, because they could not keep away. They do not think they are disobeying President Cleveland's famous civil-service order. which was directed at office-holders who take an active interest in politics, primaries, conventions and elections.

Among them are Collector Martin, of the Among them are collector and the, of the Port of Genesee: William A. Beach, Internal Revenue Collector of Syracuse: J. A. Hanlon, Internal Revenue Collector of Buffalo: David S. Hackney, Postmaster of Fort Plain: Jesper N. Hammond, Seneca Falls: Col. Lodewick, Postal Agent, and Walter H. Bunn, United States Marshal for the Northern District of New York

Walter H. Bunn, Chief States Marshal for the Northern District of New York. Deputy Collector Charles P. McCiellan, who acts as collector of this port in the ab-sence of Collector Magone, shas handsome headquarters for his Westchester County fol-headquarters for his Westchester County followers at the Westminster Hotel, two blocks from the Academy of Music. He is also a delegate to the convention. He said to an Evening World reporter:

"I am a Democrat, and would resign my office if I could not exercise my rights as a citizen and a Democrat. I do not buildoze anybody, and I am only considered an offensive partisan by the party that I oppose.

"The President's order does not prevent me attending a convention. At least, I never so construed it." construed it.

me attending a convention. At least, I never so construed it."

Deputy Collector John A. Mason, Secretary of the Custom-House Civil-Service Commission, was busy at the Hoffman House last evening. He also dropped in to see how the convention was getting along.

Ex-Assemblyman Maurice F. Holahan, United States Special Agent, occupied a seat on the stage and fairly yelled when Chairman Coudert mentioned President Cleveland's name, an t predicted that the Administration would be continued in power.

Charles J. McGee. Secretary, and one of the chief clerks in the Custom-House, was surrounded by a crowd of friends in the parquet.

or will be in attendance should a night session be held.

Many of the rural postmasters and revenue agents who came to the city to "look on" are said to be keeping themselves in hiding.

Non-Partisan Police Commissioners. The beauty of a non-partisan Police Board is ex emplified to-day. President French has gone to the Buffalo Republican Convention and Commissioners Voorbis and MacLean are looking after the weifare of the Democratic State Convention— leaving headquarters to the custody of Supt. Murray and his able inspectors.

Picked Up at the Convention. Tammany Hall is this time in favor of the unit

United States Postal Agent Lodewick had a back seat in the convention.

Not a whisper is heard of a white horse or a dark horse for Vice-President.

A number of ladies found seats in the upper boxes and in the galleries. Ex-Warden Tom Walsh's portly form loomed up in the second row of the orenestra. Of the 100 policemen on nand, under command of Capt. Clinchy, eighly-four were Democrats.

The rear guard of the Democratic hosts arrived this morning. The belated pilgrims save hotel ex-Big Commissioner Thomas S. Brennan was in his glory as a member of the Committee of Arrangements.

Commissioner Croker was fished on the right by Sheriff Grant and on the left by Gen. Roger A. Pryor. It is said that Commissioner Richard Croker not been in political accord with Gov. Hill for The County Democracy delegates occupied the first three rows of the orchestra to the right of the centre slide.

Ex-Assemblyman John M. Wiley, of Eric, was the tellest and about the handsomest man at the convention. Circulars announcing the call for a convention of Democratic clubs at Baltimore on July 4 were anded about.

The Tammany Hall delegates had seat; to the left of the centre alsie, and opposite their old foes, the County Democracy.

Said a statesman: "We are playing our game at one end of the State and the Republicans are playing their game at the other end."

Placeris on the walls guided the hungry states-men to Tammany Hall, where a sumptuous function was spread on two lumense tables. Licut.-Gov. Jones's big mustache was prominent, and Judge Rice, of Canandaigus, aggressive si-ways, bastled about among the men was had votes in the convention.

Assemblyman Edward P. Hagan, of the Sixteenth District of this city, said to Col. Theodore A. Hamilton: "Skirmish around and get me a basketful of rumors." Everybody was 'seeing" everybody else to an extent almost as remarkable as the cauvass of Mr. 'eneering's friends in his behalf when he was annidate for Parliament.

candidate for Parliament.

A twenty-one page camphlet entitled "A One-Sided History of William R. Grace, the Pirate of Peru," was industriously circulated around the up-town botels and the Academy.

Cord Meyer, member of the State Committee from the First Congressional District, comprising Queens, Saffolk and Richmond counties—This convention is just as strong for Hill for Governor as it is for Cleveland for President.

Many of the rural delegates who are stopping at

Many of the rural delegates who are stopping at the Hoffman House were seen coming out of the hotel at 1 o'clock this morning. They all wore stouch hats, pulled down over their eyes, and their overcoats were buttoned up to their chins.

Ex-Mayor Grace, having grassed the hand of every man on the way from the Irving place en-trance down to the stage, disposed himself on a chair in the front row on the stage, but declared that he had no hand in running the convention. that he had no hand in running the convention.

Colored men with bright colored-dishes skipped about in a lively way dispensing boned turkey, chicken and lobster saiads, cold tongue and a variety of savory meats. The trim appearance which the viands presented before the arrival of the delegates disappeared rapidly when they began the attack on the viands. Very little attempt was made at foral display, as the delegates were too full of business to waste their attention on flowers.

BROOKLYN NEWS.

Button Factory and Wood Turner's Shop

Gutted by Fire. Fire was discovered on the first floor and in the cellar of the three-story brick building, 174 Gwinnett street, Brooklyn, at midnight last night.

The first floor was occupied by Samuel Largy as a button factory, and the cellar by John Gutenfels, wood turner. The total damage amounted to $6,000.

Brooklyn Brevitles. Frank N. Betts, of 1175 Bedford avenue, Brook-ivn, was this morning a prisoner before Justice Kenns, charged by his former employer, Henry Thomas, with collecting $20 an i appro-risting it to his own use. He was need for examination.

Henry and William Larberg, brothers, amused hemselves yesterday by throwing bottles at and 'abbing Henry Kiehle, a friend, at 377 Elery treet, Brooklyn. They were remanded for exam-

How the Baseball Races Stand. | How the Baseman Eace State | Lagues | Per | Associari | Mon. Lost. cent. | Won. | Cont. cent. | Won. | Cont. ASSOCIATION.

Ball Games for To-Day. LEAGUE.

New Yorks at Pittsburg. Bostons at Chicago. Washingtons at Detroit. Philadelphias at Indianapolis. ASSOCIATION.

Brooklyns at Cleveland.

CENTRAL LEAGUE. Jersey Citys at Wilkesbarre. Newarks at Scranton. Eastons at Ringhamton. Allentowns st Elmira.

An "Evening World" Game Postponed. For the first time since its organization, THE VENING WORLD nine was knocked out this morning at the Polo Grounds. Its opponents fared the same way, and it was rain which did up both nines.

A game was to have been played between The Evening Would newsboys and those representing the Evening Sun. The condition of the grounds made playing impossible, and the game was postponed until Thursday next at 10 a. M.

The Quotations.

High. Loss 50% 49 3: 32 Canada Southern..... itral Pacific to., Bur. & Quiney....... leage & Northwest......
le., Mil. & et. Peut.... le., Rock Island & Pacific Ake Krue & Western

WHERE IS OLD MR. MURRAY?

HE WAS AT MISS STEPHENSON'S, BUT IS NOT THERE NOW.

The Young Wife Asks that Legal Proceed ings Be Stopped for the Present-It Now Seems that Sister Agnes Got the Old Gentleman's Consent to Go by Assuring film that Ills Sight Would Be Restored.

"Mrs. Murray has not left her room this morning. Are you a reporter? If you are, I'm to tell you that there's nothing new in the case of Mrs. Murray."

This was the voluble greeting and dismissal of an Evening World reporter by a young woman who opened the front door of 13 Washington place this morning.

The whereabouts of aged millionaire, John Boyles Murray, who left his home and his eautiful young wife last Saturday to go with as aged sister, as reported exclusively in the EVENING WORLD yesterday, is still a mystery to his wife and his brother. Bronson Murray. It is known that he was driven in a cab from his home in Washington place to the New York Hospital, and Miss Alice Stephenson, who accompanied the missing man and his sister Agnes, said this morning to the renis sister Agnes, said this morning to the re-porter that on the refusal to admit him to that institution he was taken to her home at 241 West Fourteenth street. Miss Stephenson pleaded ignorance, how-ever, as to the present whereabouts of either the blind man or his strong-minded spinster sister, "Lady Agnes," She insisted that they are not now at her residence, but would not say when they left or where they had

Under the impression that a writ of habeas Under the impression that a writ of habeas corpus had been issued by the Supreme Court, on the petition of young Mrs. Murray for the production of her husband, there was a failure to serve the summonses issued in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday by Justice Duffy for the appearance of "Lady Agnes" and Miss Stevenson. They were still safely stowed away in Court Officer Kelly's pocket this morning. Ex-Civil Justice George W. Parker had propared the papers for habeas corpus pro-ceedings, but received a note from Mrs. Mur-ray this morning instructing him not to proceed further at present.

He said that he had no doubt of his success with such proceedings, for he thought there would be no difficulty in establishing a case of abduction against "Lady Agnes" and would be no difficulty in establishing a case of abduction against "Lady Agnes" and Miss Ste, henson.

"It is true." he acknowledged, "that Mr. Murray consented to go with his sister, as he was willing to do or undergo almost anything to secure the restoration of his sight, which she promised him. But he had insisted that his wife accompany him."

Judge Parker said that he knew John B. Murray, and from that knowledge and what Mrs. Murray had told him he had no doubt that the old gentleman's consent to accompany his sister was obtained while he was laboring under great excitement and when he was not responsible in mind.

That being the case, the action of the women in taking him from his home was a clear case of abduction, he said.

Various theories have been advanced as to what disposition has been made of her blind brother by the self-willed sister.

Some are satisfied that he has been taken to Lady Agnes's Connecticut home. This theory is advanced because of the opposition of the sister to the marriage of her brother to Miss Leiss and the fact that she had never become reconciled to the union.

Othersthink the sister's only solicitude was for the health and welfare of her brother, and, not satisfied with the treatment he was receiving for his eyes, and being self-willed and, not satisfied with the treatment he was receiving for his eyes, and being self-willed and bound to have her own way, she has placed him in some specialist's care for treat-

TAKING POLITICAL ACTION.

The Locked-Out Brewerymen Send a Com-

The locked-out brewerymen made another move at their meeting to-day. This time it was a political move. They instructed their Executive Committee to wait on the Democratic Convention now in session and present the situation before that body, with a request for some expression or action in the matter,

No very definite instructions were given but it was urged as a wise step and acted upon accordingly. In the event of a refusal of the convention to act favorably the brewerymen intimated that their votes would be cast for the Republicans. Secretary Seifert, of the Brewers' Ex-change, said that no matter what action the convention took,he was certain that the Brewers' Association would not take back an of the men now out unless the boycott is raised, and then only such men will be taken back as there may be vacancies for.

An Accident on the New England Road.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
BOSTON, May 15.—An accident happened early this morning near the En loott Bridge on the New England Road. The rear trucks on the ear next to the last on the train from New London due in Boston at 7 o'clock, when approaching Dedham June ton at 7 octock, when appronously rectains state-tion, broke and puiled under the platforms and dragged about haff a mile on the sleepers. When they struck the bridge they parted from the car, which was thrown sliceways across the track. The cars were well filled with passengers, and had the car pitched the other way nothing could have averied a most lamentable disaster, the steep banking being twenty feet high at this point.

Canal Street's Morning Blaze. Fire was discovered at 8 a. M. to-day on th aird floor of 264 Canal street and the flames were with difficulty confined to the building. The first with difficulty confined to the building. The first three floors are occupied by Kingman & Campbell, manufacturers of furolitare; the fourth floor by M. Huette, manufacturer of shoes, and the fifth y Shoenfeld & Wolf, dealers in dress trimmings. The Crosstown Bookbindery occupies the top floor. The losses are; Kingman & Campbell, $4,000; M. Huette, $1,000; Shoenfeld & Wolf, $2,000; Crosstown Bookbindery, $1,000. The building can be repaired for $700.

Chased Out of a Window. Mrs. Mary Friell, of 397 First avenue, was seized with delirium tremens at her home last night, and tegan to demolish her household effects. Pane man Garret P. Doyle was called in and at his ap-pearance the woman jumped out of the window. The officer followed her, and after a chase cap-tured her in a street-car. She was carried to the East Twenty-second street police station and sut sequently removed to Bellevue Hospital. A Bride tu a Hospital.

street, who kicked his seventeen-year-old wife Flixabeth in the face, bend and abdomen last evening, hiparib, her serious y. The couple have been matric cold four montas. The wife is in a been marrie; only lour months. The wife is in a critical condition at liellevine Hospital. Piper-He dsieck Sec.

Intensely dry. For sale crurywhere '.'

PROTURES of the rulers, Hage and coats-of-arms of all nations packed with HONEST 'LONG CUZ," the best fire sout tobacce.

FLYING THEIR KITES. An Occupation Which All the Political Parties Are Now Industriously Engaged In.

SMASHING THE QUARANTINE RING.

Gay, Hill Appoints Geo. W. Anderson and Chas. F. Allen to Succeed Platt and Judd. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

ALBANY, May 15 .- Gov. Hill to-day an nounced the appointment of Geo. W. Anderson, of Brooklyn, President of the Veteran Firemen's Association, and Chas. F. Allen, Chairman of the Tammany Hall Committee of the Twenty-first District, as Quarantine Commissioners to succeed Boss Thomas C. Platt and the late David Judd. The certificates were sent to New York yes terday by special messenger, with instructions that Supreme Court Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, should swear in the appointees at once, so that they might take possession of the office before the ringsters were warned of what had been done.

The Governor intentionally avoided making the control of the

The Governor intentionally avoided making the appointments public before this morning for the reason stated. The oaths were received and filed at the Secretary of State's office to-day.

Thus has the battle ended and the Quarantine ring has been smashed. Both Anderson and Allein are stanch Democrats, and if John Alesia Nichols doesn't behave his self, the only Republican remaining in the Board will have to get out too.

have to get out too.

The Platt Senate, by its idiotic hanging up The Platt Senate, by its idiotic manging up of such excellent Republican nominations as those of Col. Frederick D. Grant, Gen. James McLeer, Gen. Denis F. Burke, James H. Breslin and others, has deprived its party of the control of the Quarantine Station.

The smashing of the ring, however, betokens a vast improvement in the management of Quarantine, and will undoubtedly prove a source of sincere congratulation for those who have feared that pestilence would result from the puerile political bickering that has characterized the Senate of 1888.

MR. HOWLAND BACK AGAIN. He Arrives Safely at Home from Connecti cut This Morning. The telegram from Cansan, Conn., that Mrs. Howland, wife of the missing hotelkeeper, received last night proves to be from her husband. A relative of the family who went there immediately after the receipt of went there immediately after the receipt of the despatch found him in much better condition than he expected. This morning Mr.

Howland arrived home safely.
Abscess of the brain, tollowed later by insomnia, which he has been troubled with of late, cause him to wander off; but spart from great loss of sleep he is in fair condition. A member of the family said that he would be around all right in a few days.

Miss Belle Lawrence, a Customs Inspectress, no loed a stylish y dressed young lady coming off the ticed a stylish y dressed young lady coming off the steamer Suevia in Hoboken this morning and her appearance are ted suspicion. Upon being taken into the seizure room and search di was found that the fair passenger, who give her name as Miss Hedwig Henle, had a comfortable wrapped about her under her clothing. This, upon being aut open, was found to contain three yards of silk plush, twenty yards of silk and fourteen yards of isace, all of which was sent to the seizure room. Before being searched, however, Miss Henle told the Inspectress that she had nothing duttable about her.

Ruffi ins Attack a Policeman. Polloeman Thomas Mulligan, of the Long Island City police, was set upon by a gang of ruffians shortly after midnight last night and nearly choked to death. Whitam Brennen, of Sixth street, Hunter's Point, held the policeman's club while other members of the gang beat him and knocked him down.

Daiy, of 125 Seventh street lay upon the prostrate form of the policeman, whom he held by the throat. Policemen Thomas Harry went to his brother officer's assistance, Both Daly and Brennan were made prisoners, Charles E. Meyer, of 255 Vernon avenue, was ar-rested as a witness.

Will They Accept the Reduction ? | PITTENUES, May 14.—Singer, Nimick & Co. have posted notices in their steel works of a general 10 per cent. reduction in wages. This reduction is to take effect May 25. On May 27, 1887, the men were granted an advance of 10 per cent., and this leaves them as before. It is not known whether the men will accept. Both Knights of Labor and Amalgamated Association workers are employed. "Regular" Brokers Win.

Rusiness at the Stock Exchange was interrupted twenty-five minutes this morning while the announcement was made that the "regular" licket had been elected by a good majority. W. L. Bull, the new President, made a short address. The "reput r" ticket had been opposed by a "pro-gressive" ticket, which was run on a platform de-manuing the election of "registered" brokers. The Blow Proved Serious. Philip Becker, of 519 West Forty-Grat street, was struck on the head last Saturday night by an un-known man. Think me his injury of no conse-quence, he went to his work as u-us on Monday, ut after being at work a sort time he feil uncon-scious. He was taken to the Roosevelt Hospital. His friends are looking for the man who struck him. "What Drug Will Scour These English Hence ?"

Wicked Macbells, who murdered good King Dan-

The police of the Flith street station are looking Wicked Macbeth, who mardered good King Dun-can, asked his question in his despair. Thousands of victims of disease are daily asking. "What will secure the importance from my blood and bring me-neath?" The France's Golden Menical Dis-covery will no it. When the purple life-side is sluggish, causing drowsiness, headache and loss of an eitie, use the wonderful via user, which never falls. It brees the liver into perfect action, drives out superfluous tile, brings the glow of health to the check and the natural sparkle to the eye. All druggists. "." for William Schaeffer, of 400 East Fourteenth druggists.

A principle aroms peculiar to itself is imparted in smoking Tunkish Choss-Cur Ciganarras.

LAST EDITION.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Republicans at Buffalo Divided in Opinion.

An Earnest Canvass Being Made for the Popular Chauncey.

The Convention Will Open at Noon To-Morrow and Mesars. Depew, Hiscock, Platt and Miller Will Probably Be Se lected as Delegates to Chicago-Editor Fitch Likely to Be Made Chairman-Delegates Slow in Arriving-No Platform Will Be Adopted.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. BUFFALO, May 15 .- The Republican State Convention to nominate four delegates atlarge to the Chicago Convention will be called to order at the Music Hall in this city at noon to-morrow. The delegates are very slow in arriving.

Headquarters have been established at the Headquarters have been established at the Genesee House, where many of the sachems of the party have engaged quarters.

Among the most prominent arrivals up to noon are Gen. Joseph B. Carr, of Troy; Gen. Henry A. Barnum, Judge Wm. H. Robertson and Janes W. Husted, who are yelling loudly for their friend Chauncey Mitchell Depew; Judge Solon B. Smith, Jake Patterson and Jake Hess, Barney Biglin, Clerk Chickering, of the Assembly; Speaker Fremoat Cole, Col. George Bliss, Shed Shook, Dwight Lawrence, Gen. John N. Knapp, of Auburn; Gen. Steve Moffitt, of Plattsburg; Commissioner Stephen B. French, Ernest H. Crosby and scores of others of less prominence in the councils of the party.

Many of the delegates already here are clamorous in their demand that the convention shall put itself on record as advocating the renomination of the Plumed Knight, but the movement is meeting with the most violent opposition from that element of the party which was formerly known as the stalwarts. The more conservative Republicans repudiate any expression of opinion one way or the other.

The friends of C. M. Depew are in a jubilant and enthusiastic state of mind. Leader Carvalho, of the Twenty-third New York Assembly District, is distributing photographs of Depew broadcast over the city, in the shops, and among all arriving delegates, and he proposes to place on the stage of the convention at the hall a chromo-lithograph, 6x9, of his favorite cand'date.

Channeey's cause is humming this morning and his followers are industrious and active as flies in harvest time.

The delegates already here favor the selection of Editor Charles E. Fitch, of Rochester, for temporary Chairman of the convention. There will not be any strife for the honor, and the State Committee, which will hold a meeting at the Genesee Hotel this evening, is likely only to consider this one name. If there is to be any strife in the convention it will be on the attempt of Blaine's friends to force the convention to proclaim itself for Blaine. The politicians here do not Genesee House, where many of the sachems here do not believe that such a policy would be a good one.

There is not likely to be any platform adopted. The general sentiment on this head seems to be to let the platform go over till fall, when one cam be constructed on the national platform, to be adopted at Chicago for delegates at large.

The most active canvassing is now going on. The four fortunate men are likely to be

CHAURCEY MITCHELL DEPEW.
FRANK HISCOCK.
THOMAS C. PLATT.
WARNER MILLER. The alternates spoken of are George Bliss and Ernest H. Crosby, of New York; Senator John Raines, of Canandaigua, and David

tor John Raines, of Canandaigua, and David A. Baldwin, of Brooklyn.
The State Committee will be reorganized, and several gentlemen who have been conspicuous in recent defeats of the party will sink into the obscurity of private life.
Thomas C. Platt arrived here on an early morning train.
Frank Hiscock will reach here at 1.30.
Judge Robertson says that Chauncey Mitchell Depew will not come, contrary to expectation.

expectation.

The New York delegation will hold a meet-

(BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) St. Petersburg, May 15 .- A disastron

Railway Sunday night. A heavy freight, running at full speed, plunged into a crowded passenger train. Eleven bodies have been taken from the ruins and thirty persons were injured, some fatally. Swept Into Lake Michigan. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. DETROIT, May 15.—A despatch from Ludington says that a dem on the Hamiin River near that place gave way, carrying with it twenty-three houses out into Lake Michigan. All the inhabi-Mississippi River on the Rise. [ST. LOUIS, May 15. —Great apprehension is caused by the continued rise in the Mississippi River. Everybody is making preparations for a flood. People are moving property to the highlands.

Rain, Then Fair and Warmer. WASHINGTON, May 18 -Weather Indications:

Indicated by Binkely's tele-thermom

The Weather To-Day.

ing at 10 o'clock to morrow morning to decide upon whom they will support for delegates. A Railroad Disnater in Russia. collision occurred on the Moscow and Kursk